There's a lady who's sure that she wants so much more
But she's trying to climb up to heaven
To get there, she's told, you must walk a narrow road
But her pride has restrained her from list'ning
Ooh, Ooh, and she's trying to climb up to heaven

There's a cross on the wall, but she wants to be sure
Cause the wide road seems so much more pleasing
In a tree by the brook where the living water flows
There's a songbird who sings about Jesus
Ooh, it makes me wonder,
Ooh, it makes me wonder,

There's a feeling I get when I'm full of regret
And my empty heart cries for God's healing
In my thoughts I can see that I want to be free
But the world doesn't want to release me
Ooh, it makes me wonder,
Ooh, it really makes me wonder.

And we foolishly assume if we follow the tune
That the pathway won't end in destruction
And a fool's day will dawn for those who blindly follow on
And the demons will taunt us with laughter

If there's a struggle in your heart, don't be alarmed now
It's just the Father's call to join him
Yes there are two paths you can go by, but in the long run
The wide road leads to destruction
And it makes me wonder.

Your head deceives you, so you won't go, to His loving arms
Our Savior calls you to join him
Dear lady can you hear the calling from the Father's throne
There's no doorway without Jesus

And as we hurtle to the grave
Gods arms are open to be saved

There walks a Savior who has paid
Who only offers love and grace

Our greatest riches will decay
And if you humble now your heart

Salvation comes to rich and poor
All knees will bow to Him at last
Proclaiming Jesus Christ as Lord

And she's following the Savior's way to heaven
